Advent With Saint Teresa Of Calcutta: Daily Meditations

Synopsis

Includes moveable feast days for the Advent and Christmas seasons. In celebration of the canonization of one of the Churchâ ™s newest saints, Servant Books is proud to present this small book of meditations for the seasons of Advent and Christmas, including special feast days associated with those seasons. Mother Teresaâ ™s life and writings, marked by a spirit of humility, simplicity and love, encourage readers to quiet their hearts as they prepare to receive the Lord. The book includes a foreword by Donna-Marie Cooper Oâ ™Boyle, whose friendship with Mother Teresa has been captured in several of her bestselling books. Heidi Hess Saxtonâ ™s Advent with St. Teresa of Calcutta captures the humble yet faith-filled spirit of this great lady of Calcutta. Each day of the Advent seasons, readers are invited to pray, and to consider what they might offer the Lord as their gift to him during this Christmas season. St. Teresaâ ™s example calls readers to consider how they might love more deeply, surrender more completely, and let go of all the things they do not need, so there is more room to receive from the Lord all he wishes them to have. For those who wander in darkness, St. Teresa of Calcutta is a true patron of joy yet to be discovered.

The guide to reflection, Advent with St.Teresa of Calcutta by Heidi Saxton with a forward by Donna-Marie Cooper Oâ¢Â Â™Boyle, asks the reader to follow 28 daily meditations during the weeks preceding Christmas. Each begins with readings from the Bible, followed by an example from the life of St.Teresa. It finishes with questions for reflection and a prayer. The time of Advent is a time for renewal, to see our lives more clearly and a time to again welcome Christ into our lives. By this effort, we try to become more Christ-like in our dealings with others. Reading through this simple but powerful guide, the reader will not only become closer to St.Teresa but also to Christ and to hopefully love more deeply. This book would be a wonderful addition to any family wishing to celebrate the Advent season more fully.
