Mark Crilley kept his word when he asked his followers what should be in his next installment to the series. I own all of his Mastering Manga books, and will continue to get the next one. This offers more advanced techniques and ways to create characters. I personally enjoyed the detailed posing, expression, and lighting explanations. What I find the best about the Mastering Manga Series than any other drawing book, is that Mark motivates the reader in the best of ways possible. I've learned a lot from him and continually getting better, see my progression of fan art I created for Nanana Maizoukin.

This is a beautiful book! It's very detailed and I may say it has everything. Shoujo, Shonen, Clothing detail, Good Proportion tips, a gorgeous anime style. However, this is not exactly for beginners so I may Recommend you Use Mastering Manga 1 or 2 First, if you're still beginning. ^_^
