Customer Reviews

If you are a beginner and really wants to learn how to draw the People in an easy way, then this book is a good option to buy. I am very bad in drawing , but after practicing from this book, I have really improved my drawing skills. I would have appreciate more if i got something more from this book but it was a good deal for me.

I never thought I can draw well. I am not really fond of drawing but I gave my self a go for this one because it was recommended by a friend. I find this book interesting and has come with crystal steps that will indeed make you become like pro artist. Worth recommending and deserves a 5star review .

A short and useful guide for everyone with artistic aspirations, that teaches us the basic techniques of drawing human faces and humans in general. The author also gives us a couple of tips at what should we pay attention to while drawing, what to avoid, and what to implement. All in all, I recommend this.

This is a great step by step instructions on drawing human faces. each image has a comment. After studying the book you'll know some tricks for drawing portraits. I recommend to all beginning portrait painters.
