Customer Reviews

While a short stint between the brothers' travels to Adelaide, it's a fun detour into the whimsy of the animals of the woods. Throughout the show and comics there's been natural, anthropomorphic, and everything in-between kind of animals here. This short also shows Beatrice finally gaining some remorse, and trying stop the brothers from going to Adelaide's home.

It's a really cute story, though with how it plays out, I entirely understand why it's best as a comic that provides more story to the cartoon as opposed to part of the cartoon itself. This one is also quite a bit funnier than the other 4 comics in the series. Product was delivered in great condition.

I enjoyed it very much! It was a wonderful way to explore some new interactions between characters, and the story neatly bridges lullaby in frogland to adalade, giving a sweet little adventure tailored to Greg's childlick chracter. Very much enjoyed.

Super speedy, item as described, bag and board even, so nice!
