This book was good, but it fell in quality compared to Volume 1. All of the comics were good, and only one wasn't great, and that happens to be the first one. I thought the art was ugly, and it clashed with the other beautiful comic, and it just didn't make me laugh. I chuckled a few times, but that can't be said for the rest to the book. Each made me laugh like crazy, and while it not be as good as the first it was still very worth of carrying on Zim's name. 4/5

Love it ! its the cutest story with the best style. Recommended for fans. God price for what it is

I love Invader Zim. And I was tickled pink to find out that they were making the comic. The first volume was a class-act, straight out of the cartoon. But V2? It was awful. It was disappointing. I understand that the contributors of the cartoon contributed, but the voice, the tone, the stories, the art... just don't measure up. I think Jhonen checked out on this one, barely even giving lip service.

There are a few enjoyable stories, but overall this is a disappointment. It's sad to think that this comic died before it had the chance to shine.
