This book will make you laugh out loud. I color to relive stress so it is perfect to color what I was thinking anyway. Like how sometimes people just need a "high five to the face", or like how "I already want to take a nap tomorrow", or (to my nosy neighbor Margie) "I found your nose, it was in my business again". Makes a great gift for the clever person in your life with a sense of humor!

What a funny book! The phrases are snarky and the Mandalas are the perfect combo of unique but not overly complex. I also love the matte finish on the cover...makes the book look so much more substantial and trendy/the kind of book I can carry around and show off.

This Mandala coloring book is absolutely awesome. It has some of the prettiest designs to color. What makes this coloring book and the designs even better is the snarky remarks on each page. I had to laugh at some of them and so many of them really are how I feel in life and on a daily basis. Some of the remarks are great to use in real life as come backs. Now with that being said I must say these pages in the coloring book are individually paged and the backs of each page are blank so you have no worries of your pens or markers bleeding into another uncolored page or a page you have already colored. This allows you to save your uncolored pics for future use. The pages are thick so you do not have to worry about your pens or markers tearing the pages while you color as we all are aware the harder you color the thinner a page gets when it is loaded with ink. This is a major plus to me. I do advise that this book is best used with gel ink pens or finer tipped markers. I love that the wording is all done in a random selection of fonts which makes the wording even more interesting to look at other than the picture in general. The wording really makes the designs pop and makes the designs come to life with a hint of sarcasm. I love this book and it is a great addition to own to your coloring book collection. I received this coloring book at a free price in exchange for my honest review.

"Ugh I can't Even." Oh yes, I can and I want to! Mandalas? Meh. is an awesome adult coloring book filled with quotes and sayings we all find ourselves saying to ourselves or out loud to others. Each page is unique and there is never two of the same. The outside borders of the mandalas themselves are great and a lot of fun to color with any medium you like: colored pencils, markers, pens or gel pens. Let your imagination and creativity take over. The pages are thick enough for all and if you use a wet medium such as markers or gel pens, add a blank or page or two behind. Personally, I love the one about smiling while you still have teeth, when you look down at your phone and walk into a telephone pole and so many others. I've had a hard time choosing a page to start because they are all so great! This book would be the perfect addition to your own snarky world or family-friends who are just as snarky as you are. Or if you just love sarcasm in general. Buy this book for yourself and anyone you know who is snarky, sarcastic and loves to color. Let the snark of this book get your creative side flowing onto the pages. (Received this book for free in exchange for an honest and unbiased review apart of the reviewer exchange program)

I just can't get enough of how cute this book is. I have seen adult coloring books at Walmart but they aren't as cute. There are cute sayings in the middle of the designs, some of the sayings made me laugh when I read them. I am going to put one on in my kitchen. I can't wait to get more of these books. I don't like to look at the picture of the pages till I get them. I think it is so much more fun to see them when they come in the mail. I love that they have a book called the mommy life. I will have to get that one next. I received this book as part of a preferred reviewer for testing and giving my unbiased review

Papeterie Bleu has made my new favorite coloring book. More family friendly and definitely more funny than the swear word coloring books that are out there! This book has 31 designs in it ranging from easy to medium in complexity. All the designs are printed on one side of the page only so you can safely use markers if your heart desires. I used markers, gel pens, pencil crayons, and crayons to test it out. I think the designs are a little too small to use crayons on unless you sharpen them frequently. Make sure to follow me on Instagram for more colored pictures from the book! @xstitchalanna Sample provided by company for testing and a possible unbiased review

Mandalas? Meh. by Papeterie Bleu is full of just that snarky or sarcastic phrases! The fun is already there, you just fill in the lines with whatever color medium you choose. One of the things that I liked about this adult coloring book is that it has a unique twist on things that we might think and say out loud to friends or maybe strangers! Page after page of cute sayings along with detailed borders to color. A laugh at every turn of the page! Add to your stack of coloring books with this one!
