This Brutal World

Synopsis

A curated collection of some of the most powerful and awe-inspiring Brutalist architecture ever built. This Brutal World is a global survey of this compelling and much-admired style of architecture. It brings to light virtually unknown Brutalist architectural treasures from across the former eastern bloc and other far flung parts of the world. It includes works by some of the best contemporary architects including Zaha Hadid and David Chipperfield as well as by some of the master architects of the 20th century including Le Corbusier, Mies van der Rohe, Frank Lloyd Wright, Louis Kahn, Paul Rudolph and Marcel Breuer.

Customer Reviews

An outstanding example of brutalist architecture examples from around the world. This book puts it all together with a great intro, TONS of spectacular photos and clever quotes sprinkled throughout. Some people hate brutalist architecture...this book will show you the error of your thoughts.

This Brutal World, is, by far the most extensive collection of brutalist architecture I've seen. It's a gorgeous book worth every penny. I want to frame every picture in this book and hang on my wall, that's how good it is. And of course, it features my favorite building of all time, a Paul Rudolph classic, the Orange County Government Center in Goshen, NY

Beautiful book, but would have liked a little more writing. Otherwise great images my friend described it is kind of printed version of Tumblr. If you want to know more, watch the Jonathan Meads thing, also good.
