This is such a beautiful journal. I am very pleased with my purchase. It has room to write your thoughts and feelings down and a few pages to color too. The only thing is I wish there were more pages to color, but for the price, it is a perfect journal. It would also make a nice gift for that young person in your life, or adult. I bought it for myself and it's a nice journal that I can use for my 'color' therapy and journal at the same time!

After falling in love with the "Live, Love, Laugh" journal that I got as a gift, I was gifted this one as well and I adore it just as much! This book is a teensy bit smaller than the other and fits in even the smallest purse I own. The paper quality is top notch and stands up to my gel pens. I would recommend this book for those who like journaling, (Although if you don't, you can just as easily utilize the pages for notes, to do lists, etc...), those who like coloring and for everyone else in between.

I couldn't believe that I found a product that met my specific need. The book was delivered promptly in prime condition. The inerts of the book were beautiful and interesting. Just overjoyed to have found this book. Looking forward to purchasing more from the seller.

Such a nice journal and coloring book. Just enough pictures to color without overwhelming the journal part. I also bought one for a gift for a friend.

I thought it was a coloring book. I am quite surprised to find it is more of a journal. I fits well with my inner artist.

It is so cute...I didn't think it would be as small as it was..but I think that was me just not paying attention in the beginning! But it have cute pages, just the right amount of writing to coloring ratio.

Bought this for my creative daughter. Nice sized journal with plenty of lined sheets for writing. Very cute and the coloring pages are a fun bonus.

This is really pretty! I bought it for my 10yr old she's super crafty and loves little things like this. The inside is super cute as well.
