Customer Reviews

The build and print quality of this high-gloss (well, satin/eggshell to be precise) collection of covers is essential coffee table material. The commentaries accompanying the cover art allow the reader to peak into the minds of the creators and gain a greater appreciation for the creative effort behind each of these works of art. The originality and depth of most of the covers breath new life into familiar classics. I'm a sucker for a good cover, so I had no choice but to buy a book full of them. The only down side to this book is now that I've been exposed to so many of these incredible covers I need to buy all these Penguin classics. I'm sure that's just a coincidental effect that Penguin didn't contemplate when making this book.

Excellent item, securely packed, and promptly delivered. Excellent vendor. AAA+++. Purchaseers of this book should be aware, however, that the "classic" Penguin covers are actually quite contemporary designs and rather avant-garde art--NOT the "classic covers" from the company's earlier years.,

Interesting book for a book cover designs lover.
