Customer Reviews

My grandson loves to watch the Blaze program. We all appreciate the STEM basis of the show. My eldest daughter (his mother) is a mechanical engineer and my younger daughter is a mathematical scientist. Our household has always been one where the sciences were being studied. It's great to see a fun book that captures a lot of the feeling of the program. In this book, Blaze is in a race with Crusher to see whose wind-powered boat will be fastest. Of course, Crusher has to find a way to try to win that is not exactly according to the rules.
