Miranda Paul does it again! We own her other two books - Water is Water and One Plastic Bag - and love them. This book shows Paul's playful side. She's a master of rhyme and fun. Kids will love the counting down and the ninjas' antics. Dare I say, "sensei-tional"? :-)

Bought as a gift for a 3 year olds birthday. My toddler loved it so much(before wrapping it) she requested I buy one for her. Cute rhymes and lively fun pictures. Great twist on monkeys jumping on the bed. Definitely gives more to look at than counting monkeys. Keeps a toddler engaged as each page is a different character and the rhyme slightly changes throughout. It includes mommy and daddy and 10 kids. Great bed time story as it flows nicely and ends quietly.

This book is sure to be a hit with any parent familiar with sleepy little ninjas sneaking into their beds and an even bigger hit with the ninjas themselves! The colorful, imaginative illustrations complement Miranda Paul's bouncy, well- rhymed take on the familiar Five Little Monkeys nursery rhyme. As the countdown continues, the ninjas become pirates, race card drivers and more in their quest to make it to mom and dad's bed. Wonderful read aloud bedtime book!

Miranda Paul writes yet another beautifully written story. A fresh take on the story of the 10 little monkeys, this book will keep you guessing with its clever rhymes and varied characters. The illustrations are darling and colorful. This story will resonate with a child's imagination and resistance to bed time. A must read!

This book is filled with craziness that kids will love. They may also "accidentally" learn some numbers along the way. The rhyme make it a fun read-a-loud, and the illustrations show a diverse set of characters.

Sliding, slinking, sneaking little ninjas! What a handful of fun and frolic as parents struggle to get the kids to bed. This entertaining picture book will keep you and the kids in stitches doing a countdown to bedtime. Don't be surprised if this story is requested every night. Miranda Paul's wit and rhyme sing throughout the nighttime ritual. Nate Wragg's illustrations add color and zaniness to a madcap evening romp.

I just ordered this excellent bedtime (or anytime) story. I love how the familiar "10 little monkeys" shifts not only to Ninjas, but also to several other fun pretend characters. Takes the story to a new level. And the illustrations are so much fun. Looking forward to the "Again, again!" that I'll hear from my little ninjas, or astronauts, or...etc.

This is a delightful book that everyone in the family will love! Every parent who has struggled to keep their child in bed, and every child who has tried sneaking out, will giggle their way through this imaginative book. The familiar tune and fun illustrations grab the reader right from the start. As expected, Miranda Paul delivers another excellent story written in superb rhyme.
