Customer Reviews

My daughter isn't quite 2 yet, but I wanted an activity book for her to use while her big brother was doing his workbooks. She is just learning her colors, and this vibrantly colored book helps her recognize them. The child is supposed to look thru stickers and recognize which color can be placed on the activity page. That concept is advanced for my child, but the stickers are reusable and the pages are shiny dry-erase like pages. She scribbles in them and I can wipe away, so I'm sure we will be able to utilize this book for the next couple years. There are 12 pages for sticker activities and 4 pages of stickers.

Its a nice sticker book and my son had fun doing it. However, you could do the whole thing in about half an hour as its not very many activities. I wish it had a few more pages/activities.

My just two year loves this. Will be buying again.

Nice
