Customer Reviews

This is year three for using this calendar style. For me it works great as I use two squares per person for the three of us giving me more room especially for the granddaughter's activities. Anything dealing with school, dr appts goes in the first square while after school activities, theater, etc go in the second square. I have tried a variety of calendars to keep track of everyone's schedules and for me this one has been the best. I especially like the 17 month one as I can mark the entire new school year instead of just doing a half year, waiting for the next 12 mo calendar to come out to finish up the rest of the year.
