Customer Reviews

This book is a very simple idea, but so very creative and fun. It's a great outlet for kids to express their creativityÃ¢Â"even ones who may be shy about it as it gives enough direction to spark the imagination, but makes many of the projects super interesting, silly, and/or fun. The directions are in a simple in a non-intrusive fontÃ¢Â"leaving space for the drawings. The paper is nice, smooth, and thick. Every other page is split diagonally (two exercises for two smaller drawings) and the opposing pages are full-sized (for bigger drawings in more detail). This is nice, because a young person can choose to do smaller drawings/sketches if they are in a hurry or take their time on a small masterpiece.*I* was really tempted to keep it for me (I'm an artist), but I bought it for my homeschooled 3rd grader. The plan was to let her use it as an art journal for school next year, but when she saw it she begged to draw in it and immediately produced 3 enthusiastic unique and cool drawings. I expect 639 more to come quickly. We may not be using it for school next year after all (I

Perfect for a creative 9 year old!
