Customer Reviews

Although everything seems to be electronic these days, I still prefer a paper engagement calendar for my personal use. I record all sorts of things in it - appointments, vacation information, exercise, etc. I purchase the Sierra Club Engagement Calendar every year. I have kept several years worth, which I can go back through and reminisce about various activities. The pages are not as thick as they once were, but I still find them to be of decent quality. The spiral binding makes it easy to flip through the pages. There is one week per page with ample writing space for each day. (See customer image.) Best of all, the photos of the animals and scenery are absolutely spectacular. I especially like it when I discover a picture or two taken in my own state. It makes me appreciate my surroundings that much more.

Although the years go by too quickly, we are ever so happy to have 2017 ready to accept records of events already planned for the new year. We are great admirers of the weekly photos -- elegant images.

I've used this calendar for about 4 years, since the Blue Dog engagement calendar became unavailable. It is of high quality and since it shows a week at a time, it gives me enough room to keep track of three people's appointments and activities. My go-to now every year.

Still using a paper daily calendar rather than my phone. LOVE this one. Been using Sierra Club one for years. Love it because the weeks start on Monday which is when my week starts!

I am very disappointed in the quality of the Sierra Club 2017 Engagement Calendar. In previous years the stunning photographs filled the pages with borderless, saturated, full-color striking images, while this year there is an awful lot of white space, making the photos much less appealing. That said, the photos themselves are not the same caliber as in previous years. Some of them are rather ho-hum, actually. I think the Sierra Club really "cheaped out" on the engagement calendar this year and I am thinking about returning it. (I had pre-ordered it.)This year's calendar is also made from a less heavy, lower quality paper than in previous years. You should take a pass on this is my opinion.

I got one for me, and some for gifts! LOVE THIS CALENDAR! Weekly lovely pics and much writing space!!!!

Beautiful as always! Yeah Sierra Club Calendars!
