Customer Reviews

Despite the above heading, I am nonetheless glad I purchased this book. I own both Side A and Side B, and I can say that Side B is the more satisfactory of the two (Though Side A is still great). This covers the second half of the show, End of Evangelion, and beyond in moderate detail with detailed character and Eva art that would please any fan of the models. The layout is very similar to Side A with further exploration of the darker subjects in the anime, but don't expect any groundbreaking revelations pertaining to the final episodes and ultimate conclusion. Granted, you might see a few captions and notes that heighten your appreciation of the show, because sometimes things can move too fast onscreen. This book brings to the table what any intelligent Evangelion fan could deduce with little trouble, just in succinct summaries with pleasing pictorial accompaniment. Not really what I'd call "essential," but still worth the price for a detailed overview and shallow study of the Evangelion universe. Take my word as you see fit.

A must have for Evangelion fans! This covers the second half of the original Evangelion TV series and the End of Evangelion. Amazing artwork, though not much new info for those who know the series well. If you have side A, you definitely need side B.

very good art book must have if you are a fan of the anime

Fast shipping ,nice book full with very detail for fan of serie
