Customer Reviews

I make a scrapbook every year for my niece's birthday. She is in love with horses and has been since she was born. It is very difficult to find different horse stuff every year for her book. I saw this and I thought for the price - it was worth a try. I received it on time and packaged well. I am very happy with this purchase. We hope this book can get her through her horse stage!!! The horses are all different colors and sizes. There are trophies and ribbons and horse shoes and carrots. The stickers are very realistic and come in large and small sizes. I think it will be easy to coordinate the stickers in the scrapbook as there are different colors to each one also. The stickers are removable so I will have to glue them. But for the price and the diversity of the stickers - I am fine with gluing. I am very happy with this purchase!

These are pretty stickers. There are many different ones, some are repeated in the book. I bought them because they supposedly can be lifted up and reusable without being ruined or ruining what you stick them to. I actually used them to place on a canvas for a painting project. Kids painted right over the sticker, then took the sticker off to reveal the outline of a horse. They were a little too easy to lift off the canvas for this. Not sticky enough. I had to cut each one we used that way because they are not tight to the outline of the horse. But if your child has a love of horses, this is a nice book. Comes with a scene in the book you can stick the horses to also.

I was looking for horse stickers and I wasn't picky. I found this sticker book and the price was really good so I decided to buy it. I was really happy with my purchase. There are 400 stickers in this book ranging in size from 1" to 4" in size. The colors are very vivid and the detail is very good also. The great thing about these stickers they are not permanently stuck you can move them anywhere and they will restick. If these are for a child they will make a great gift and you won't have sticker clean up when he is done playing.

I cannot begin to explain how impressed I am with these stickers. They are so extremely realistic and there are so many. All sorts of shapes and sizes. I'm so happy with them. My daughter and I love to do crafts, & these are perfect for the frame I'm doing for her horseback riding ribbons!! I can't wait to have a reason to buy their other books of stickers

I'm impressed. Not reusable though. I'm fairly cheap and suspicious of new things but I'm glad I took a chance I'm planning on buying more. I want to use them in my children's photo albums but with so many stickers I can let the kids have a bunch just to play with. I would recommend these to others who were considering buying stickers.

The stickers are all really small, but the price was really low so I thought it was worth it. I wouldn't have been happy if I'd paid full price.

My family is getting more stickers than they ever wanted on letters after I got this book of 400 reusable stickers!
