Customer Reviews

“Gothic Dark Fantasy” is the latest great coloring book by talented artist Selina Fenech. There are 25 fantastic designs ranging from medieval maidens to rather elegant witches. I'm so happy that the book contains two of each design because it gives me the opportunity to explore each in different colorways. I don't have to choose whether I go light or dark with each design “ I can do both in the same book. The designs feature lovely women with beautiful, brooding eyes. The gowns inspire me with thoughts of elegance while the bustier style outfits of the witches give me the chance to go a little more flirty in style. I own a number of Ms. Fenech's coloring books and each is better than the last. For my first project, I choose to color a design as a tattered angel. I used a variety of medium on the design, including alcohol and water based markers and soft lead pencils. I went with pastel tones for my first go with the design. When I color it a second time, I will be sure to use deep and rich colors to give it a different look. I will provide a more detailed description of the coloring physical book below but here is a quick overview of what I found: 25 x 2 Gothic Fantasy Designs Printed on one side of page Pages are not perforated Designs do not merge into the binding Glue Binding Alcohol and water-based markers bleed through the paper India ink pens and gel pens leave shadows on color on back of the page Coloring Pencils work well with this paper The designs in this coloring book are printed on one side of medium weight, white, non-perforated paper. The binding is glued rather than sewn and the designs do not merge into the binding area.
