A Walk Around Nantucket

Synopsis

Whether you're a first-time visitor or a life-long resident, A Walk Around Nantucket's 19 line drawings of iconic Nantucket scenes by renowned Nantucket folk artists Paul McCarthy and Jean Petty lets you revisit your favorite places on our faraway island. And, more than just revisit them, you can reimagine them! Have you always thought that Sankaty Head would look better in Nantucket Whalers' navy blue and white, or the Old Mill's blades would look great in preppy pink and green? Bring your vision to life as you take A Walk Around Nantucket! How will you take your walk? Do you have a Hudson River School's sense of realism and romance? An impressionist's feel for changing light? A modernist's rejection of the traditional? A pop artist's love of kitsch? Share your view of Nantucket with our online community by posting your finished pages on Facebook (Color Me Nantucket), Instagram (@colormenantucket), and Twitter (@colornantucket). Create your own home gallery by detaching the colored pages and installing them at your home or office. Of course, they could make a great gift, too. You also can share your love of Nantucket by coloring and mailing the postcards included in the back of A Walk Around Nantucket. Be a kid again slow down, sit back, relax, and take A Walk Around Nantucket. Scott Widmeyer & Alan Yount Publishers
